Mr. H. B. Clarke
Mayor, City of Goliad
Goliad, Texas

Dear Mayor Clarke:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you and congratulate you for your fine contributions of April 20th and 21st during the ceremony honoring the birthplace of General Ignacio Zaragoza. Please extend this same congratulations and thanks to all of your fine citizens of Goliad, to the ladies and men and your groups who made this possible by their dedication, sacrifice, and work on this occasion.

The amount of good that was done on this occasion is something that will be of great importance in our relations with our sister Republic to the South Mexico. We want especially to thank the ladies and the gentlemen who did such a fine job at the Town Club during the reception. The cooking was magnificent, but more than that the reception was warm, spontaneous, and cordial which impressed Governor Livas Villarreal, Consul General Cano del Castillo, Consul Alcozer, and the representatives from the city of Puebla.

I am sending copies of this letter which I hope you will give to people like Mr. Alspringer, the Ramseys, and the ladies who are very charming. This day will symbolize the beginning of better understanding, recognition, and respect between the two countries which is of great importance at moments like the present. I can assure you that Goliad should be proud of one of its various moments in history. Personally, in behalf of myself and Corpus Christi delegation, I want to thank you and if you are ever in Corpus Christi come by and say hello.

Respectfully yours,

Hector P. Garcia, M.D.
