

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

December 10, 1966

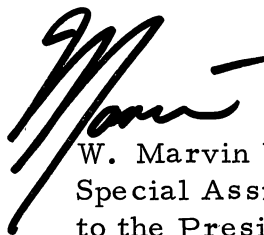

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Thank you for your letter to the President requesting an appointment to see him at the ranch.

It was impossible to arrange this meeting on his recent stay in Texas, but every effort will be made to set up this appointment when he returns to Texas after his present stay in Washington. Perhaps something can be arranged during the week of December 19. If so, you will be contacted from the ranch concerning the date and time.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,
