Dear Dr. Garcia:

I have your note of August 27, 1968, referring to our attention the problem which Mrs. Francisca Reyes of Bishop has in providing for a child she has raised since birth. You state that this youngster is seven years old but is not legally adopted.

In order to qualify for assistance through our Aid to Families with Dependent Children program, the child must be living with a parent or other relative. I assume that this child is not related to Mrs. Reyes and would therefore be ineligible for assistance under this program. However, I am asking our worker, Mrs. Elizabeth Fairbairn, to get in touch with Mrs. Reyes upon her next visit to Bishop in order that we can determine whether this Department will be able to give any assistance. Should Mrs. Reyes fail to qualify for any help from our Department, we will be glad to refer her to City-County Welfare.

Thank you for your usual thoughtfulness in calling to our attention any situation in which you feel we may be able to help.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Hugh R. Cook
Regional Director
