Dear Hector.

In reference to your letter of July 26 regarding missing copies of the Sentinel, I have to advise you that after looking through old records etc I have no copies of the Sentinel left.

Although I doubt it seriously, perhaps Santos de la Paz has some old copies. Another possible source is the Retama Library and the Junior College library. I believe I sent them complimentary copies.

In rooting through old files I found the manuscript that I submitted to the Readers Digest a long time ago. I do not know whether you ever got a copy of it but you are welcome to my copy for your records. I am sending to you by separate mail. I am also sending you a special issue of the local daily in which they mark the sesquicential anniversary of Victoria. It has some twisted historical factor that you may want to make note of.

Best wishes,

Oscar Phillips
