Dear Dr. Garcia:

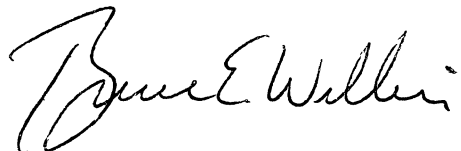

We are considering Ms. Maria M. Chavez as a candidate for the Rockefeller Foundation Research Fellowship Program for Minority-Group Scholars for 1983.

Each person selected for this program will undertake policy oriented social science and humanistic research on problems of high priority in areas such as education, employment, housing and civil rights. Their projects should be designed to influence the understanding and resolution of minority-group issues in America.

Would you be kind enough to give us your professional estimate of this applicant? Please include your opinion of the applicant's research competence and educational substance. Enclosed is a form for this purpose.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce E. Williams
