Dear Dr. Garcia,

Please accept my personal congratulations on your selection as recipient of the annual "la medalla de honor" award from the National Hispanic University in Los Angeles, California. This award is a fitting tribute to the enormous contributions you have made to humanity and our great American society. You have truly served your country with honor.

The leadership and wisdom you have exhibited over a very distinguished career serve as sterling examples for all to follow. I consider it a pleasure to be associated with an American of your stature.

Again, I send my congratulations to you for receipt of this prestigious award.

Respectfully,

Tom Walker
