Dear Dr. Garcia:

It is with a great sense of pride that I take this opportunity to invite you and all other public officials from South Texas to the greatest historical event of the year.

Vice-President and Mrs. George Bush will be visiting Hebbroville, Texas on September 14th and I want to invite you and all other public officials to join me and being a part of this auspicious occasion.

As a political leader of your community and county, I am entrusting you with invitations and I would like for you personally to distribute them accordingly. If you require additional invitations, please feel free to let me know and I will be happy to send you however many more you may require.

I look forward to seeing you and your delegation on September 14 and joining us to welcome Vice-President and Mrs. George Bush to a South Texas salute and tribute.

Sincerely,

Tony Salinas
