Dear USO Boardmember:

On Tuesday evening, October 22, the USO of South Texas and the military commands of the NAS will be hosting an open house and a reception to honor and thank the contributors to the USO. I believe that it is vitally important that each of us as members of the Board of the USO attend this significant event. As hosts, we should be present not only to show our appreciation to our contributors but also to demonstrate our personal involvement and support of our USO. Our attendance at Board meetings is only the beginning of our responsibility as a Board member. Involvement, dedication and support of USO activities beyond the Board meeting is essential if our USO is to be a healthy and effective organization.

We have all made a commitment to support the USO and we should honor that commitment. Please make your plans now to stop by the USO open house for a few minutes and then be at the NAS Officers' Mess by 7:00 p.m. for the dedication of the bus. See you there.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Cameron
President, USO Board of South Texas

PAC/pjr

P.S. During the ribbon-cutting for the bus all USO Board members are asked to gather by the entrance to the bus as Mayor Jones and Rear Admiral Disher make their remarks and cut the ribbon. We hope to have media coverage of this event.
