Dear Mrs. Navarro;

I was very pleased to have you write to me on September 16, 1974 regarding your case. I certainly appreciate your interest, work, and belief in our organization. I am sorry to hear however, that you have not had prompt results.

According to your letter, you are having problems with the CAC Agency. For point of verification and assurance I would like to know what the CAC Agency stands for. Also I would like to know exactly what your problem is because I do not want to assume I know what it is and therefore if I know what your problem is I may be able to help you.

Please let me know as soon as possible and send me copies of letters you have available that may help give me more insight to your problem.

Very sincerely,

Dr. Hector P. Garcia

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Please send me a copy of R. Morin's book, Among the Valiant.

I need it for some research immediately so please air mail it if at all possible.

Bill me for the amount, please.

Best wishes for you and the fine work you have done.

Sincerely,
