Dear Dr. Garcia:

Perhaps you will think this is very presumptuous of me asking you for this small favor. However, I am aware that you and the person involved (Ann Fair) are not intimate friends; but you did meet with her in your office at one time and reviewed with her, a book she had written on teaching English to non-English speaking children.

She has spent 45 years in the Three Rivers school system teaching children of Mexican descent. Under her direction, with love and devotion, she alone has been responsible for many of these children furthering their education, reaching greater heights and becoming wonderful citizens.

I know our system has never been under "fire" (so to speak) for discrimination. We give her credit for the unity of the races. She understands both cultures, she is Catholic and works closely with your people in the church as well as the school.

Could you, or would you, write a few lines of praise in her behalf.
I know this will be hard to do, only meeting her the one time.

I feel your name as a great leader of your people would enhance her chance of winning their coveted title of "Teacher of the Year" nation wide, which she so justly deserves.

Sincerely,
(Mrs) Marilyn Rosebrook
