

March 16, 1979

Dear Uncle Hector,

Please excuse me for not attending the banquet. I have been fighting off a virus and it's left me exhausted, especially after my workday today.

I offer you my most heartfelt good wishes upon this evening and always.

If I could ever accomplish $\frac{1}{16}$ of what you have, I'd consider myself fulfilled. You have given thousands of people their dignity back.

With deepest admiration,

Jolette
tu sobrina