Dear Doctor Hector:

I received in this morning's mail your good note requesting copies of the 1972 and 1973 report on U.S. Participation in the United Nations.

I am enclosing a copy of the 1972 report which I hope will prove useful, but regret that 1973's report is not as yet available. Please be assured that I will forward it along whenever it is printed.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'John Young', is written over the typed name.
