Dear Dr. Hector:

I certainly want to be of every further service possible in the case of Dr. Rene Guevara and his family, and I appreciate your forwarding to my attention a copy of Dr. Guevara's letter of September 12 to Mr. Joe Staley, District Director of Immigration in San Antonio.

Dr. Hector, I contacted Mr. Staley on long distance in the interest of Dr. Guevara's request as outlined in his letter that he be issued a permit enabling him to work. However, Mr. Staley explained that in the case of non-immigrants the law is very specific and forbids employment or the issuance of work permits. The problem confronting Dr. Guevara is certainly understood, but our successful efforts thus far in securing extensions of stay in this country for him and his family have been possible primarily through his being retained in non-immigrant status. I am very mindful that the present six month extension will be up on November 30; and, while I cannot predict the outcome, I will continue my best efforts with Immigration officials and will keep you and the Saenzes advised.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

John Young
