

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 9, 1967

Dear Doctor Garcia:

John Macy has asked me to thank you for your letter of January 28 on behalf of Ambassador Raymond Telles, whom you recommend to be Assistant Secretary of State for Latin American Affairs.

We are certainly pleased to have your recommendation.

The President is deeply aware of Ambassador Telles' qualifications, as indicated by the fact that he appointed him Chairman of the United States Section of the Border Development Commission on January 16.

We will be sure to keep Ambassador Telles in mind in connection with every appropriate opportunity to use his talents.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert G. Cox". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letter of each word being capitalized and prominent.

Robert G. Cox
