Dear Dr. Garcia:

Please accept my sincere apologies for imposing on you the past few days. I have always admired your leadership and your political talents. In order for me to properly evaluate my position on the coming political race, it was necessary for me to express my feelings to you.

The decision that I made was totally mine. However, I feel it was done wisely. I certainly hope to have your support in the coming city elections and would very much like to be of assistance to you on any political issue between now and the next election date. Your friendship is greatly appreciated.

Your friend,

Roland Garcia
