

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

October 25, 1963

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Your letter of October 19th has arrived in the temporary absence of the Vice President and I am taking the privilege of acknowledging it in his behalf.

I shall place your letter upon his desk to await his return and I know that your kind comments will cheer him, as they always do.

Our best regards.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Ivan Sinclair".
