> RE: Dr. Hector P. Garcia Collection

Dear Alan:

Dr. Hector has finally slowed down to permit us discussion of the contract for the Garcia collection. Dr. Pat Carroll of your staff was instrumental in forwarding to me several samples of contracts by other institutions and I have recommended to Dr. Garcia acceptance of either the format styled "Donation to the CCSU Library" and the "gift format" by the University of Texas at Austin.

While we are now prepared to execute either of the contracts, may I also remind as a matter of principal, there are some loose ends so to speak that need to be tied down and for that may I refer you of your letter to me of October 16, 1985, copy enclosed. The signing of the contract would be contingent on the University assuming the following responsibilities in addition to those enumerated of your letter of October 16, 1985, those would be as follows:

- I. The collection has an intrinsic value of which we would need in order for Dr. Garcia to derive some economic benefit not so much at the present but to his estate and his heirs and to that end we would request a tax appraisal by a recognized expert in order to satisfy the Internal Revenue requirements and that this cost be borne by the University.
- 2. Designate Dr. Hector as a Distinguished Lecturer in Residence which satisfies the number 2 requirement of your letter of October 16th.

PAGE TWO LETTER TO ALAN SUGG, PRESIDENT JANUARY 27, 1989

May I then suggest that we convene at your convenience with you personally or selected members of your staff in order to iron out the details.

May I respectfully also suggest that if possible, Dr. Carroll be included as part of this group since he has become quite knowledgeable about the project.

We look forward to meeting soon. With warmest personal regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Amador C. Garcia
