MEET OUR MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Dr. Joel Joselevitz

Since receiving his medical degree at the National Autonomous University of Mexico in 1983, Dr. Joselevitz has amassed impressive credentials for his position as Medical Director at Corpus Christi Warm Springs.

- One year of General Surgery
- Research fellowship in Cardiovascular Physiology.
- Community service in the University of Mexico Clinic for developmentally disabled and neurologically impaired children.
- Training in Electrodiagnostic Medicine (EMG and Nerve Conduction Studies)
- Research fellowship in Environmental & Community Medicine.
- Training in Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Rehabilitation.
- Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation training at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey.
- Directed a course on Sports Medicine 1991 meeting American Academy of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation.

He is uniquely qualified to bring the Warm Springs standard of care to Corpus Christi. Says the Mexico native (now a U.S. citizen), "I feel very strongly that my bilingual and bi-cultural background will help me better serve this community."
