Dear Dr. Garcia,

I'm writing to thank you for talking to me on Sept. 20. I must apologize for the tardiness in my letter, but I found my original thank-you letters underneath my computer this morning. I'm embarrassed to say I don't keep the cleanest desk in town. I do want to say that I thoroughly enjoyed our conversation and found it extremely helpful in my research. The more I read and research, the more I realize what a unique opportunity I have here in pursuing this paper. I will be in Corpus during Thanksgiving and I hope I have another chance to see you. Once again, thank you for the time you spent with me.

Sincerely,

Lynn H. Butler
