

You will stand, the man at the woman's right.

Ceremony

Divine Revelation has declared marriage to be honorable and an institution of God. It was ordained in the time of man's innocency before he had sinned against his Maker and ^{was} banished from Paradise. Thus this ceremony is given in wisdom and kindness to repress irregular affection and to support well-ordered families who are guided by the truth and holiness that has and will be handed down from generation to generation. A relationship thus consecrated should not be formed thoughtlessly, but advisedly in the fear of God, who has so ordained and blessed matrimony.

And now in His sight, and as you will answer in the day when all hearts shall be made manifest, I charge you to declare if there be any cause that should prevent this union. From your silence I presume that there is none.

It being your intention to become man and wife, ~~xxxxxx~~ join your right hands: " You _____ now take this woman whose hand you hold to be your lawful wedded wife and you promise before God and these witnesses that you will love, honor and cherish her, forsaking all others for her, as long as you may live?

And you _____ do promise before God and these witnesses to take ~~th~~ this man whose hand you hold to be your lawful wedded husband and that you will love, honor and cherish him as long as you live?

As you have thus solemnly agreed before God and these witnesses I now pronounce you man and wife. May Divine favor crown your union with all of the blessings of Jesus Christ and bring to you life everlasting. Amen.
