Dear Dr. Garcia: H. Hector

It was not until I returned to Austin on Monday, February 20, that I saw the enclosed editorial in the Austin American-Statesman of Saturday, February 18, and I assume that by now others may have already sent you a copy.

It goes without saying that this editorial echoes my own sentiments.

Everyone was so pleased that you could be with us in the Senate last Thursday. You honored us by your presence.

With warmest regards and every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,
