

San Antonio, Texas
July 28, 1948.

Dr. Hector P. Garcia
Corpus Christi, Texas.

Dear Doctor:

I have you had any news about my brother's case? Today I wrote Dr. E. E. Egan, asking him also, for news. I talked to him on the telephone last week, and he promised to mail me some letter that he had; but he has not sent any. So you think my brother can be free this year?

There is a German lady in San Antonio, married to a U.S. Capt., E. E. Coy. She came last March from Germany and has a lot of relatives living near

II.
Schwab-Gmund, Germany, where Rosendo was tried. The two women mentioned in the Record of Trial might still be living in the neighborhood and through the S. S. S.
or the C. S. C., of Germany we could find out if there women are well behaved or not. Mrs. Cox promised to get this information for me if either you or Lic. Duran thought I could help my brother.

Please let me know what you think of this.

With my best regards to your family I remain,

Sincerely,

M^{rs} de Jesus

(over)

P. S. Through the Saezy Clinic
I heard you were in San Antonio; and you neither called nor came by the Beauty Salon. My home telephone is ls-7667 it is under my name and I live on Mason 1110 - near Fort Sam.
Please call me, if you have time, next time you are in town and tell me any news you might have about my brother.

Vall