Dear Dr. Garcia,

I am writing a book for public schools comprised of about fifty biographies of Mexican Americans who are exemplary in some respect. I would like to include you.

The Mexican American biography project continues at a good pace, and promises to be a valuable addition to literature on the Mexican American for the public schools.

If you would like to be included, then please send me what biographical materials you have and a current photograph; also, let me know where the materials on you are available. The final list of biographies will be determined by June on the basis of materials on hand. For your information, we will allot no less than two biographies (one male and one female) to any one state in which there are Mexican Americans. For states like California and Texas, the number of biographies will relate to the number of Mexican Americans. Each biographical entry will be about 1,000 words and contain educational observations based on the career in question.

I hope you can help in the endeavor which I predict will be useful education. Thank you.

Sincerely,
