Dear Chente:

Everything is moving along just fine. Right now I don't know whether I am coming or going with work. I don't know if I have more work now that the convention is over, or before. Never the less, I have quite a bit to do, but I am enjoying every minute of it.

Chente, we are sending you some of the things that you left here. I hope that everything is included. By the way, we have the placards that Morin sent us. Please tell us how much we are to sell them for.

Herein attached is a list of the things which the box contains. Be sure and let me know if there is anything else.

Be sure and keep me posted on everything that is going on. Bless you all and one and bewt wishes,

Your friend as ever,

Hector
