

"URBAN MULTI-HISPANIC SOLIDARITY"
PADRES National Encuentro
April 19-22, 1976
New York

Estimada Amigo/Estimada Amiga :

PADRES invites you to its next national encuentro which has as its theme: "Urban Multi-Hispanic Solidarity". This meeting will take place during Easter week, April 19-22, 1976, in New York.

The Most Reverend Roque Adames, Bishop of Santiago de los Caballeros in the Dominican Republic has gladly accepted to participate in this meeting with his "Spanish speaking brothers of the United States". Bishop Juan Arzube, of Los Angeles, will be the keynote speaker and he will be joined by his fellow hispanic bishops of the U. S.

The encuentro is seen as an introduction of PADRES to the Eastern Seaboard, as well as an occasion to establish fraternal solidarity with the local priests and hispanic peoples. It will help to sensitize us to the urban plight of our hispanic brothers and sisters in the New York area to their geo-political situation.

The time set for arrival and registration is between 2:00 and 5:00 p.m. The dinner is set for 6:00 p.m. The Encuentro will officially begin with the welcoming talk at 7:00 p.m.

The Encuentro will be held at Bishop Malloy Retreat House, 178th Street and Wexford Terrace, Jamaica, New York 11432, 739-1229 (close to the airports, accessible by subway and bus.)
