From Our Hearts To Yours

We thank you for celebrating with us today this beautiful and holy sacrament of matrimony, the covenant which is the sign of our unity and of our love which is freely given and freely accepted. We wish to acknowledge and thank all who have assisted us in preparation for this sacrament and for this special day: our families who have been generous in their love and patience, and our friends and relatives, especially those who have traveled great distances to be here with us to share their joy and ours.
May God's love and peace be with us all,

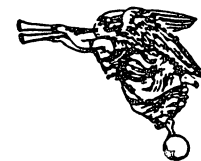

LIBBY & TOM

REFLECTIONS

The formation of the marriage covenant is celebrated with the gifts of ourselves, our pledge to bind ourselves to each other willingly, and in openness to growth and discovery in our relationship of love and fidelity, faith and mutuality, hope and promise, peace and dignity, justice and compassion. We share these gifts through the Eucharist, our journey in grace where we bring the Lord into ourselves and where we bring our love into the sight of God and community. We ask for your continued encouragement and loving prayers, to be witnesses to our commitment toward that final unity that is yet to be.
