Dear Dr. Garcia:

It was a most distinct pleasure and honor visiting with you last week and discussing the continual problems the Mexican American faces throughout the country and in particular South Texas.

Your comments to the newly formed Commission staff in July, 1965 in Washington, D.C., are still recalled and please be assured that we will continue to enforce Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act as amended.

I have enclosed herein the most recent publications of our enforcement responsibilities as well as a Texas map outlining the jurisdictions of the Commission's Texas offices.

Please let me know if I can be of any further assistance.

Sincerely,
