

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 10, 1987

Dear Hector:

As usual, my desk was piled high with work when I arrived at the White House this Monday morning.

However, before delving into it, I do want to write a note telling you how great it was to see you at the G.I. Forum and have a chance to really get to know you. It is easy to understand why you received the Medal of Freedom award by the President last year. It is seeing people such as yourself who make all the traveling I do worthwhile.

Please let me know when I can be of help to you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Rudy Beserra". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
