CORPUS CHRISTI STATE UNIVERSITY

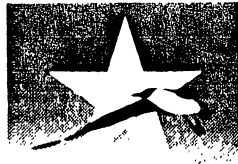

DONATION TO THE CCSU LIBRARY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That I, Hector Perez García, M.D., resident of Corpus Christi, of Nueces County in the state of Texas, desiring to further education in the State of Texas, and stating that I have full title to the collection known as the García Papers, do hereby give, assign, transfer, and set over to the Corpus Christi State University Library all of my right, title, and interest in my private papers as a permanent part of its collections to be preserved for all time. These papers shall be known as the HECTOR P. GARCÍA PAPERS. CCSU will administer and preserve these records and items in accordance with its customary practices, subject to the following provisions:

1. The papers will be turned over to the Special Collections Division of the CCSU Library.
2. CCSU agrees that it will never transfer, sell or trade any of these papers without the written authorization of Hector Perez García, M.D. or his heirs.
3. No part of the said papers are to be used in connection with any publication or made available to the public until six months after the death of the donor (Hector Perez García, M.D.), except upon the written authorization of Hector Perez García, M.D. or his appointed legal representative, Mr. Amador García.

4. Said papers are to be made available within the Special Collection Area of the University Library for use by Hector Perez García, M.D. or any person to whom he gives written authorization at any time. Upon his request CCSU agrees to provide Dr. García with xerox copies of any of his papers.

The Corpus Christi State University Library will accept the HECTOR PEREZ GARCÍA PAPERS subject to the foregoing provisions, and agrees to exercise due care in their preservation and administration.

Signed this 17th Day of December Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight Years by:
