Dear Doctor:

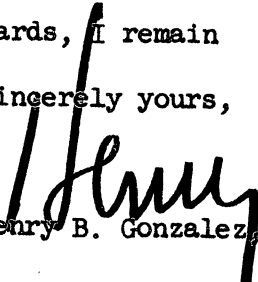

Today, October 23, 1965, the Post Office Department is issuing for the first time a stamp honoring the late Adlai Stevenson.

I am pleased to share this day with you by sending you this first day cachet cover cancelled in Bloomington, Illinois, Mr. Stevenson's home town.

I thought you would like to have this as I know you share with me a deep admiration for the life of public service which Adlai Stevenson gave to our country as governor of a great state, as twice the eloquent Presidential nominee of the Democratic Party, and as a most effective and diligent Ambassador to the United Nations.

With warmest personal regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Henry B. Gonzalez, M. C.
