Dear Dr. Garcia:

The Annual Luncheon and Meeting of the Texas Young Lawyers Association will be held Friday, June 7, at 12:00 Noon in the Grand Ballroom E at the Loews Anatole in Dallas. In addition to Judge Jerry Buchmeyer, our featured luncheon speaker, we will recognize the Outstanding Young Lawyer, Liberty Bell, and Outstanding Director recipient for this year, as well as presentation of the Jaworski Awards. We hope you will find time in your busy schedule to join us.

You may also wish to attend the Great Debate, sponsored by the TYLA and the Litigation Section of the State Bar. This year's debate, on the Federal Trade Commission's interest in the organized Bar as a profession, will pit the State Bar's incoming President-Elect Bill Whitehurst against John Carley, General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, D.C. Mr. Chrys Dougherty with Graves, Dougherty, Hearon and Moody will act as moderator. The Great Debate will begin at 11:00 a.m., Friday, June 7 in the Grand Ballroom C at the Loews Anatole.

If you have not already ordered a ticket for the Annual Meeting, it is still not too late to plan to attend. Tickets will be available at the registration area for the State Bar Convention at the Exhibit Hall in the Chantilly Ballroom of the Loews Anatole. A limited number of tickets will also be available at the door. I look forward to seeing you in Dallas.

Sincerely,

Berry Crowley

WHEREAS, these historical and literary documents, if obtained, are listed in a proposal which will form the nucleus of an instructional collection and educational programming in a Center For Ethnic Studies and Cultural Development at Del Mar College; and

WHEREAS, the Del Mar College Foundation provides instructional resources and facilities designed to maintain state-of-the-art technical classroom capabilities; and

WHEREAS, the Del Mar College Foundation supplements student service possibilities arising from the unique cultural and socio-economic opportunities in the South Texas area; and

WHEREAS, the Del Mar College Foundation will review and develop the essential elements of a funding program entitled Center For Ethnic Studies and Cultural Development at Del Mar College; and

WHEREAS, community support on a state, national, and international scale will be developed from identified resources to underwrite the housing and teaching benefits from these possible gifts to enhance the teaching-learning process at Del Mar College;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Regents at this meeting recommends that the proposal for a Center For Ethnic Studies and Cultural Development be reviewed by the Del Mar College Foundation Board as to its feasibility for Del Mar College, as well as the specific funding of the project.
