Dear Doctor:

I am especially delighted that you are going to be in Washington for the next couple of days. I am sending this letter to the Mayflower Hotel and when you receive it, I hope you will call my office-- Capital 4-3121, ext. 2223 -- and ask my secretary to arrange a time for us to get together.

Warm good wishes.

Sincerely,

My dear Hector ~~Friend~~:

Thank you very much for your warm and gracious letter as well as the informative material including the text of your fine address, Mr. Mitchell's speech, the reprint of Paul Jacobs' article from the REPORTER and the February issue of your G I FORUM NEWS BULLETIN.

It was a pleasure having you with us and I'm most happy if we were able to help you while you were in Washington.

Most of all, I'm grateful to have the benefit of your thinking and hope that you will continue to write me such fine letters in the future.

Best personal wishes.

Sincerely,

Lyndon B. Johnson
