Dear Doctor:

Due to the urgent press of arrairs at the moment, which I feel certain you will understand, this will be short.

I heard your talk at Ben Garza Park last evening during which my manners were criticized relative to the ommission of "Dr." or "M. D." in certain advertising. That advertisement was prepared by my advertising agent and published without my having the opportunity of examining the "proof" prior to its going to press. As rushed as I have been the past few weeks I am sure you can understand how it is utterly impossible for me to examine every detail of publicity. However, that is no excuse for the omissions of title to which you are justly entitled, accordingly, would you kindly accept my apologies?

If I am elected Sheriff and should you, or the people who look to your leadership, feel that I might be of assistance, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

Sincerely yours,

Odem Dolan
