MAR. 18 1924
(DATE MAILED)

By direction of the President of the United States:

You are hereby informed that you have been by him reappointed in the Army of the United States, in the grade and section you now hold - indicated in the above address - for a period of five years beginning on the day following the one upon which your current appointment expires. The date of expiration of your current appointment is shown in the lower righthand corner of the address above.

There is inclosed herewith an oath of office, which you are requested to execute and mail to the agency designated by the Corps Area Commander, on or before the day following the one upon which your current appointment expires. Upon receipt of the oath of office duly executed a commission evidencing your appointment will be sent to you.

The timely execution and mailing of the required oath of office as above indicated constitute an acceptance of this appointment. No other evidence of acceptance is required or desired.

You are further informed that unless this appointment is accepted in the manner and within the time above stated your status as an officer of the Army of the United States cannot be regarded as continuous, and that unless so accepted this appointment is to be regarded as withdrawn at the end of the day following the one upon which your current appointment expires.

By order of the Secretary of War:

D. M. Matt
Adjutant General.

90th Div. U.S.A. Recd.

Hqrs. 90th Division, U. S. Army, San Antonio, Texas, March 24th, 1924.
To: 1st Lieut. Conrad M. Blucher, Engr-ORC., 123 S. Crawford St., Dallas, Texas.

1. Enclosing letter from The Adjutant General of the Army tendering you a reappointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps in present grade and branch of service effective upon termination of your present commission which expires May 2nd, 1924.

2. During your current appointment extending over a period of five years you have found that being a member of the Officers' Reserve Corps has, in no way, interfered with your business or profession, and in accepting a reappointment you may rest assured that in peace time no military duty will be required of you that will interfere with your civil pursuits.

3. By accepting a reappointment the following advantages accrue to you:-

- (a) Definite status as an officer.
- (b) Eligibility for promotion to higher grade.
- (c) Fifty per cent of your inactive service is credited for longevity pay when called to active service.
- (d) No professional examination required. Should you drop out now and desire a reappointment at a later date a professional examination might be required.

4. Your reappointment is affected by taking Oath of Office which must be accomplished on or before May 3rd, 1924. This Oath of Office may be accomplished by any Notary Public or military or civil official authorized to administer oath.

5. The War Department is particularly desirous of having all officers continue in the Officers' Reserve Corps, and this office will be pleased to receive your oath of office at once, covering your reappointment.

6. Should you for any reason decide to decline reappointment it will be appreciated if you will notify these headquarters in writing, to that effect.
