Dear Dr. Garcia:

Because of the pending surgery and other commitments, the schedule is necessarily curtailed. It will therefore not be possible for the President to meet with you as you request.

Perhaps you would like to make your views known by letter. If so, I know the President will be glad for you to write.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "W. Marvin Watson". The signature is stylized with a large initial "W" and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Thank you for your warm telegram to President Johnson.

It is greatly appreciated, and will be called to his attention at the earliest opportunity.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Paul Popple". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, stylized initial "P".

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Your telegram to the President arrived today. As you know, the President and Marvin Watson are in Texas at the present time, but we will see if this appointment can be arranged and will be back in touch with you just as soon as possible.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

James R. Jones

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Thank you very much for sending me the clipping about Senator Tower's trouble stirrings. Last Friday Louis Tellez also told me about this at the end of a telephone conversation with one of my colleagues.

I have sent a copy of the article to Jake Jacobsen at the Ranch so that he can pass it on to the President. Perhaps it will incite some action.

Thank you again for keeping me informed. I'm sorry that I have nothing to report to you. Please keep in touch.

With my best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Sincerely,

James C. Falcon
