August 23, 1967

Dear Dr. Garcia:

We have enclosed four items which may be of interest:

1. A Census Bureau map of the Southwest showing areas heavily populated by persons with Spanish surnames. This is the first such map produced by the Bureau and we have a few single copies on hand here.
2. An announcement by the Department of Agriculture of the appointment of Ramon Montalvo of Weslaco, Texas, to its Advisory Committee on Civil Rights.
3. A list of seven new Mexican American employees of the Civil Rights Commission. The Commission has embarked on several major programs regarding the problems of the Mexican American community in recent months.
4. An announcement from the Office of Education regarding the newly-created Advisory Committee on Mexican American Education.

We will continue to send you similar material.

Sincerely,

David S. North
