RE: Dr. Hector P. García's Recommendation.

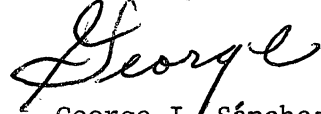

Dear Frank:

If you will refer to my bibliography (pages 55-58) that you printed for the Institute of Latin American Studies in 1959, you will find listed there a number of courses of study such as the one Mrs. Ann Fair (whom I do not know) seems to have prepared. However, there is always room for another guide of this sort, if it is a good one.

The Texas Education Agency recently has published a guide that is used with non-English speaking children in summer schools. The Texas State Department of Education years ago published a detailed guide for teachers of Spanish-speaking children, a guide prepared under the direction of Dr. Henry Otto and myself. It has been out of print for some time, as is an older one of the same nature (see items 689 and 690 in my bibliography). It may be that the TEA may want to consider Mrs. Fair's work. If it is a good one, it will certainly serve a good purpose. If the U. T. Press is to consider it, I will be happy to make an evaluation for you (for free!).

Happy hangover!

Cordially,

George I. Sánchez
