Dear Friends and Supporters:

I appreciate your valuable support in the past and hope that you will be able to help again this summer in the campaign for a second term. If we work hard, I believe we can win in the first primary. On the back of this letter I am printing a copy of the recent Belden poll which supports this possibility. Things look good, but we should take nothing for granted. We should work hard to get out the vote and then to have our friends at the precinct conventions.

On Monday night, June 30, at 8 p.m. I will officially open my campaign for re-election with a rally in Austin at Wooldridge Park and a state-wide radio broadcast. I hope everyone possible in the Austin vicinity will attend the rally and that others will listen and ask their friends to tune in on the radio broadcast.

Enclosed you will find a folder, windshield stickers, and a car bumper sticker. I hope you will make good use of these and that you will write to campaign headquarters, Post Office Box 1112, Austin, Texas, for any additional literature that you can use.

Let me have your suggestions at any time, and please pardon the necessary haste and form of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Price Daniel
