Dr. Hector P. Garcia
Convention Chairman
3024 Morgan Ave.
Corpus Christi, Texas

Dear Hector:

Please make reservations for me at the White Plaza.
I will arrive in Corpus Christi Thursday morning.

My wife will not be with me until Saturday at which time she and some of my family will come up to Corpus.

The program looks fine and I can see a tremendous amount of work put in it. I see that James De Anda is in charge of resolutions and amendments. I assume he is in charge of the national convention resolutions and amendments. If he is in charge of these for the national, then it would work out fine because I talked to Filbert while I was waiting for the plane in Kansas City and he tells me it is doubtful if he will be able to go and for me to go ahead and make other arrangements.

I have a number of changes for the national constitution which were submitted by Filbert, but since he won't be there I will get together with James and go over them with him.

Sincerely,

Vicente

Dear Hector:

Enclosed is a check for $40 which brings the total to 140 dollars to cover at least part of your expenses to Chicago and the other states.

Yesterday, I wrote a letter telling you I would be in Corpus Christi on Thursday, the third, and to make reservations for me at the White Plaza Hotel. I seem to have misplaced the letter or at least I can't recall mailing it, nevertheless these are my plans.

I am sorry to hear about the complaints of Velasco on the matter of the program.

To Amigo,

Vicente T. Ximenes

Dear Hector:

The convention pins that you asked ^{for} are in a box that I mailed you two days ago. You may take out the convention pins and if possible have one of your employees put on the blue and red ribbons for use at the convention. All the other material in the box that I mailed you is mine and I will pick it up when I arrive in Corpus Christi. I am also sending by bus, two other boxes of material including caps and lapel pins. Please have one of your girls check with the Grayhound Bus Station on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Sincerely yours,

Vicente
