Dear SEASONED CITIZENS of the UTMB Class of 1940,

What a great reunion this will be!

Among other activities, count on these:

-Our reception in the Wentletrap Restaurant, Topgallant Room, next door to the Tremont House, will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Friday; (Those participating in Homecoming activities are eligible for the other reception on the UTMB campus, 5:30-7:30 p.m., but the planning committee hopes you will spend the entire evening with the Class of 1940 and forego the homecoming reception.)

-Please register at the door and attach your identification tag, prepared for each alumnus and spouse;

-Autograph the big poster;

-Note the proposed cover for our collection of Unreliable Memoirs to be published and mailed to you shortly after the reunion. (Already paid for with your dinner assessment.)

HAVE YOU SUBMITTED A LETTER AND/OR A C.V. OR ANY OTHER COMMENTS TO BE DISTRIBUTED IN THE MEMOIRS? IF NOT, DO IT!)

-Find your placecard and put it wherever you wish to sit for dinner (the card indicates your entree, also);

-Look for the open bar;

-Enjoy the non-invasive music provided by Class President McMillan.

-Be prepared to divulge a (2-minute max) favorite remembrance sometime during the evening if you wish;

-Our dinner will begin 8:00-8:15 p.m. or thereabouts;

-Stay in good health.

In anticipation of a wonderful evening,
