ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

To guard against mistakes or dr.ays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unrepeated message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and paid for as such in constant.

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unrepeated-message at beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars; nor for message in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars; nor for message received for transmission or delivery.

2. In any event the Company shall not be liable for damages for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the megigence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the actual loss, not exceeding in any event the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount the sender of each message represents that the message is valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.

3. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.

4. Except as otherwise indicated in connection with the listing of individual places in the filed tariffs of the Company, the amount paid for the transmission of a domestic telegram or an incoming cable or radio message covers its delivery within the following limits: In cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company has an office which, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, is not operated through the agency of a railroad company, within two miles of any open main or branch office of the Company, in cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company within the following limits: In cities or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where the Company has an office which, as shown by the more inhabitants where, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company, it the telegraph office; in cities or towns of 1,000 inhabitants in which an office of the Company, is the telegraph office; or towns of 5,000 or more inhabitants where, as shown by the filed tariffs of the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits above specified the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits above specified the Company is located, within one-half mile of the telegraph office. Beyond the limits above specified the Company is located, within the understanding that the sender authorizes the collection of any additional charge if it is not collected from the addressee. There will be no additional charge for deliveries made by telephone within the corporate limits of any city or town in which an office of the Company is located.

5. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

6. The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in the case of any message except an intrastate message in Texas where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission, and in the case of an intrastate message in Texas the Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties where the claim is not presented in writing to the Company within ninety-five days after the cause of action, if any, shall have accrued; provided, however, that neither of these conditions shall apply to claims for damages or overcharges within the purview of Section 415 of the Communications Act of 1934.

7. It is agreed that in any action by the Company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.

8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.

9. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing,
