Biographical Sketch April 13, 1988

STEPHEN W. SULLIVAN

Steve Sullivan, 41, began a career in advertising with the Corpus Christi Caller-Times in 1970. In 1974 he became national sales manager for Harte-Hanks Communications, Inc., and returned as advertising director of the Caller-Times in 1977. In 1980 he became general manager of the San Angelo Standard-Times, and in 1982 once again returned to the Caller-Times as general manager where he was later named president. In December, 1987, Sullivan was promoted to publisher of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times. In addition, he is also a vice president of Harte-Hanks Communications, Inc. and is a member of the Harte-Hanks Newspaper Executive Committee where he serves as chairman of the Data Processing Committee.

A resident of Corpus Christi most of his life, Sullivan holds a bachelor's degree in advertising and public relations from East Texas State University. He currently serves on boards of directors for the Corpus Christi Chamber of Commerce, where he served as chairman in 1987; United Way of the Coastal Bend, where he served as campaign chairman in 1986; Corpus Christi Area Economic Development Corporation; and Texas Daily Newspaper Association, as treasurer.

He and his wife, Janis, have two daughters.

Ither Civic commitments: Sailboard Fask Fire Area Development Committee

Triginal Photo in Photo Bry Stephen W. Sullivan