Former Nueces County Surveyor Dies Suddenly

C. F. H. von Blucher Expires at Home Here

C. F. H. von Blucher, 82, former county surveyor and son of the first colonists in Corpus Christi, died suddenly at 2 o'clock this morning at his home, 123^N Carrizo Street.

Mr. Von Blucher was born in Corpus Christi February 10, 1856, in a home which stood within 75 feet of the present Blucher home. He had spent his life in Corpus Christi and began surveying work at the age of 16 or 17 years.

He served as Nueces County surveyor from 1882 until 1934, giving the county more than half a century of unbroken service. In 1934 his son, Conrad Blucher, became county surveyor. Characteristic of his German ancestry, Mr. Von Blucher was thorough in every detail of his work, and his surveying records, which form the basis of work which has been done since, show that because of this attribute he was far ahead of his time in his profession.

Parents Came From Germany

C. F. H. von Blucher was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix A. von Blucher, who came to Corpus Christi from Germany and settled here among the first colonists in 1849.

His father was a graduate of the University of Berlin, a doctor of laws and engineering, and was an accomplished linguist, speaking and writing seven languages. He served, after his arrival in the new country around Corpus Christi, as an interpreter for the colonists in their dealings with the Indians.

Mr. Von Blucher was married in 1880 to Miss Mary Meuly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meuly, who came to Corpus Christi ~~2~~ years before Mr. Von Blucher's parents.

Pioneer Dies

C. F. H. von Blucher, who served as Nueces County surveyor for 52 years, died suddenly at his home, 123 Carrizo Street early this morning. He was the son of one of the first colonists to settle in Corpus Christi and had lived here all his life. Funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Blucher residence.

Survived By Wife

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary von Blucher; one daughter, Miss Marie von Blucher; and by four sons, Conrad and George of Corpus Christi, Carl von Blucher of Austin and Richard von Blucher of Lampasas; and by four grand~~children~~ children.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Von Blucher home, 123 Carrizo Street, by the Rev. Dr. George West Diehl.

Burial will be in Rose Hill Cemetery under direction of the David T. Peel Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be C. P. Creglow, E. L. Caldwell, Boyd Brooks, A. W. Partain, W. R. Sparkman and Floyd Zimmerman.

FORMER NUECES COUNTY SURVEYOR SUCCUMBS

(Special Telegram)

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Feb. 22.—The son of one of Corpus Christi's first colonists, and county surveyor of Nueces County for 52 consecutive years, C. F. H. Von Blucher, 82, died at his home about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The former county surveyor was born in Corpus Christi Feb. 10, 1856, in a home which stood within 75 feet of the present Blucher home. From the age of 16, he spent his life in Nueces County in surveying work.

Despite his years, he was actively engaged in surveying work until 1934, when his son, Conrad, took over his duties.

C. F. H. Von Blucher was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix A. Von Blucher, who came to Corpus Christi from Germany and settled here among the first colonists in 1849. Colonizer Blucher was graduate of University of Berlin as a doctor of laws and engineering, and was an accomplished linguist. His ability to converse fluently in seven languages served the colonists here well in interpreting the Indians in various dealings.

Since his retirement from active engineering and surveying work. The former county surveyor found it difficult to stay at home after so many years in the brush and could be seen most any day walking several miles from his home to visit friends and other surveyors.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary Von Blucher; one daughter, Miss Marie Von Blucher, and four sons, Conrad and George of Corpus Christi, and Carl Von Blucher of Austin and Richard Von Blucher of Lampasas, and four grand~~sons.~~ children.

A native Corpus Christian and the son of Corpus Christi's early colonists, C. F. H. von Blucher, 82, former county surveyor, died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Funeral services will be conducted from the residence, 123 Carrizo Street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Last Rites for C.F.H. von Blucher Arranged Today

Native Son and Former County Surveyor
Died Yesterday

Funeral services for C. F. H. von Blucher, 82, former county surveyor and son of Corpus Christi's first colonists, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Von Blucher home, 123 Carrizo Street.

Mr. Von Blucher died unexpectedly at 2 o'clock yesterday morning at his home. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix A. von Blucher, who came to Corpus Christi from Germany and settled here among the first colonists in 1849.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Mary von Blucher; a daughter, Miss Marie von Blucher; four sons, Conrad and George von Blucher of Corpus Christi, Carl von Blucher of Austin and Richard von Blucher of Lampasas; and four grandsons.

Mr. Von Blucher was born in Corpus Christi February 10, 1856, in a home located within 75 feet of the present Blucher home. He had spent his life in Corpus Christi and began surveying work at the age of about 16.

He served as Nueces County surveyor from 1882 until 1934, giving the county more than half a century of unbroken service. In 1934 his son, Conrad Blucher, became county surveyor.

The father of the elderly surveyor, Felix A. von Blucher, was a graduate of the University of Berlin, a doctor of laws and engineering, and an accomplished linguist, speaking and writing seven languages. After his arrival in Corpus Christi from Germany he served as an interpreter for the colonists in their dealings with the Indians.

Mr. Von Blucher was married in 1880 to Miss Mary Meuly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Meuly, who came to Corpus Christi 2 years before the arrival of the Von Blucher family here.

The Rev. Dr. George West Diehl, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate at funeral services. Burial will be in Rose Hill Cemetery under direction of the David T. Peel Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be C. P. Creglow, E. L. Caldwell, Boyd Brooks, A. W. Partain, W. R. Sparkman and Floyd Zimmerman.
