1979 TEXAS INAUGURAL

PRAYER SERVICE

10 a.m. First United Methodist Church
The opening event of this historic day is a prayer service with Dr. W. A. Criswell of the First Baptist Church of Dallas as principle speaker. The Reverends Jack Heacock, E. Stanley Branch, Robert Estill, and Byron Crocker are joint participants in this one hour service. Due to a limited number of seats, admission to the church sanctuary is by invitation only. Additional seating is located in the Chapel and in Wesley Hall.

INAUGURAL CEREMONY

High Noon South Entrance to the Capitol
The inauguration of Governor-Elect William Perry Clements, Jr. and Lieutenant Governor-Elect William P. Hobby is held under the auspices of the Senate and the House of Representatives. No seating is available except for those state officials on the platform. In the event of extremely inclement weather, the ceremony may be held inside the Capitol.

INAUGURAL BARBEQUE

12:30-2:00 p.m. The Capitol
Following the Inaugural Ceremony, everyone is invited to a traditional Texas barbeque in the Capitol. Tickets to the Inaugural Barbeque can be purchased in advance or at the door and all visitors and guests to this "Day for All Texans" are welcome.

INAUGURAL PARADE

2:30 p.m. Congress Avenue
Governor William Perry Clements, Jr., Lieutenant Governor William P. Hobby, their guests and other members of the official family review this spectacular "All-Texas" parade. Floats, marching bands and military units from every corner of the Lone Star State join in saluting the new Governor and Lieutenant Governor. The finale of the Inaugural Parade is a breathtaking rendition of "Texas, Our Texas" performed by the combined parade bands in formation at the gates of the Capitol.

CELEBRATION FOR YOUNG TEXANS

4:30 p.m. South Lawn of The Capitol
The new Governor, Lieutenant Governor and their wives salute Texas' greatest natural resource, our children, with a party on the lawn of the Capitol. There is free ice cream, clowns and balloons for children of all ages.

INAUGURAL SYMPHONY

5:00 p.m. Lyndon Baines Johnson Auditorium
This is the first Inaugural Symphony Concert in Texas history. The Austin Symphony Orchestra honors Governor and Mrs. Clements and Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Hobby in this tribute to the fine arts in Texas. The hour long performance is free and open to the public.

INAUGURAL EVENING

8:00
A grand finale to this "Day for All Texans", the Inaugural Evening offers a variety of events for all. The Texas Inaugural Gala is a formal ball and admission is by ticket only. The All Texas Ball is an informal ball and admission is by ticket only. The Sounds of Texas Celebration is an informal party and is open to the public.

All Texans are invited to share in this glorious day.
