Dear Dr. Garcia:

Just a note to thank you very much for your recent correspondence and enclosures regarding the situation among the poor in our country and your work on the Civil Rights Commission. I apologize for this delinquent response, but be assured of my very active interest in the situations you described.

It may be of interest to you to know that, on a related matter, I have introduced legislation to regulate the flow of Mexican nationals into the United States. I have taken the liberty of enclosing a copy of my introductory remarks from the Congressional Record on this Bill.

Again, thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Edward M. Kennedy
