

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 14, 1979

Dear Dr. Garcia:

Thank you for your recent correspondence to President Carter concerning Benjamin Civiletti.

Your interest in making your views known is most appreciated. We are pleased that you took the time to share your thoughts and I want to assure you that your comments have been noted.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Arnie Miller". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Arnie" and the last name "Miller" clearly distinguishable.
