Dear Dr. Hector:

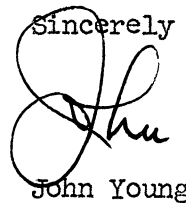

I want to acknowledge your letter of November 26th on behalf of the family of David G. De Ases, who was killed in action while serving in the infantry in World War II.

I am contacting Army Headquarters to obtain all available information and particulars regarding Mr. De Ases' death and also regarding the insurance mentioned in your letter.

I thank you for writing me in this regard and will advise you promptly of information received.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
