DEMOCRATIC VICTORY DINNER

Monday, January 14

Austin Municipal Auditorium, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Admission by Ticket Only

This Victory Dinner for all Texas Democrats is sponsored by the State Democratic Executive Committee and is strictly a Party affair. One ticket will be issued for each $25.00 contribution to the State Democratic Executive Committee. The net proceeds will be used to finance the activities of the Party during the next two years. Tickets may be secured from the State Democratic Executive Committee office at 1010 Lavaca, Austin, or from district committeemen and committeewomen. Dress for the head table will be black tie; optional dress for all others. Entertainment will be continuous, speeches will be short and few in number. Will D. Davis and Mrs. Wallace Scott Jr., co-chairmen. Carroll Abbott, co-ordinator.

OFFICIAL INAUGURAL ACTIVITIES

DEDICATORY PRAYER SERVICE

Tuesday, January 15

Site to be Announced, 8 a.m.

Attendance open to all Texans; no invitation or ticket is needed

The dedicatory prayer service, with Dr. Billy Graham as principal speaker and with all faiths represented, is the opening event of the Inauguration Day activities. This service replaces the prayer breakfast which has been held in former years. Frank Denius, chairman.

OFFICIAL INAUGURAL CEREMONY

Tuesday, January 15

The Capitol, High Noon

Attendance open to all Texans; no invitation or ticket is needed

The inauguration of Governor-elect John Connally and Lieutenant Governor-elect Preston Smith is under the auspices of the Senate and House of Representatives. Senator Charles Herring is chairman of the Senate Inaugural Committee; Representative Ben Barnes is chairman of the House of Representatives Inaugural Committee.

INAUGURAL PARADE

Tuesday, January 15

Route to be Announced, 2 p.m.

Attendance open to all Texans; no invitation or ticket is needed

Governor Connally, Lieutenant Governor Smith and other members of the official family will view one of the largest parades ever held in Texas. There will be dozens of bands, military units and civic floats. The U. S. Navy will join in saluting its former Secretary. J. J. Pickle, chairman.

GALA INAUGURAL RECEPTION

Tuesday, January 15

The Capitol, 6 p.m.

Attendance open to all Texans; no invitation or ticket is needed

The new Governor, Lieutenant Governor and other state officials will greet their thousands of inaugural guests. Another inaugural innovation, this gala reception will feature continuous entertainment in the Hall of the House of Representatives and in the Senate Chamber. Refreshments will be served. Exquisite decorations are planned. This promises to be the finest inaugural affair ever held in Texas. Dress for those in the receiving line will be black tie; optional dress for all others. Warren Woodward, chairman.
