Honorable John Young

House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Young:

This is an interim reply in response to your inquiry in behalf of Mrs. Jesus Alcala, concerning the discharge of her husband, Jesus R. Alcala, from the Texas Army National Guard.

The administration of members of the Texas Army National Guard, including their discharge, is a function of that State within the bounds of regulations which prescribe standards and requirements applicable in all States. Records on enlisted members are maintained at State level.

In view of the State's responsibility in this regard, we have written to the Adjutant General of Texas to apprise him of your interest and to obtain additional information relative to this matter. When a reply is received from that officer we will write you accordingly.

My best wishes.

Sincerely,

Incl

WINSTON P. WILSON
Major General
Chief, National Guard Bureau
