Dear Dr. Garcia,

I could not help wonder as I read the newspaper article about the gift from the GI Forum to Ray Rodela, Jr., why you didn't deposit the $200.00 gift into a savings account, or Series E Bonds, etc. and let it build up interest until he does graduate from high school and go on to college. The $200.00 will still be $200.00 then and now, but with a little foresight it could be increased into a little more. And as generous as the offer is, it wont go far on college expenses. He will need all he can get.

Thank you for all your leadership, gifts, encouragement, and healing help that you have given in your life. May God bless you in physical health, His strength, and His love.

Sincerely,
